

The last meeting of the year was held at St Peter's St Albans on Saturday December 28th 1940. One new member was elected (Mr Darvill) proposed by Mrs Fergusson.

The place of the next meeting was then under discussion. The secretary moved that owing to the prevailing conditions it was his opinion that it would be better to follow Mr Horton's plan and hold the district meetings in one central place, and as St Peter's tower was available on almost any Saturday he thought it would be the most suitable place and convenient to most members of the district.

The president (Mr Horton) stated that he had found the plan most satisfactory in the Watford district, and it was agreed that the same be tried in St Albans.

The election of officers for the district then took place. Mr H. V. Frost proposed

Mr H. Stacey be re-elected Secretary.
Mr A Day seconded.

Mr H. V. Frost also proposed that the committee be re-elected, the Secretary being given power to co-opt one other member if necessary. Mr J Spicer seconded.

Ringers were present from
St Albans Cathedral, St Peter's St Albans,
Chalfont, Ashton-under-Lyme, Watford,
Harpenden, Redbourn, and Bombardier
H. V. Frost. One good course of Superlative was rung.

Mr A Day proposed a vote of thanks for the tower. Mr H. V. Frost seconded, and the meeting closed.
